Insights into Accounting: A Conversation with Lawrence Statsky '76, CPA and Partner-in-Charge of Financial Services at Raich Ende Malter & Co. LLP

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 2021 • 12:10 PM

LAWRENCE STATSKEY heads the financial services group at Raich Ende Malter & Co. LLP, a regional accounting firm located in New York City. He has over 40 years of public and private accounting experience. Larry specializes in providing audit, tax, and advisory services to various entities such as broker-dealers, hedge funds, and investment advisors.

Most recently, Larry served as the Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) of a $24 billion, multi-strategy hedge fund. He was responsible for various functions within the organization, including accounting, operations, tax, and human resources. Larry was also a member of the company's executive committee. Previous to his CAO experience, Larry was a partner at a Big Four accounting firm, where he helped establish and co-lead the firm's New York Hedge Fund practice.
